EXPERIENCE THE BEST OF RICHMOND

Eager to explore Richmond’s popular hotspots in a fast-moving two-day tour? Grab a coffee, hop in the car and follow our best-of-the-city itinerary!

DAY 1

Start at the International Buddhist Temple ①, an ornate complex of traditional Chinese-style pavilions (30 minutes). Next, drive to Steveston Village ② and discover the area’s best historic spots on foot (2-3 hours).

Begin with the Gulf of Georgia Cannery National Historic Site ③, a huge former salmon-canning plant (guided tours available). Next, stroll past the boutiques of Moncton Street to the Tourism Richmond Visitor Centre, also home to the fascinating Steveston Museum ④. Carry on to the Steveston Interurban Tram ⑤ building, with its handsomely preserved century-old tramcar.

For lunch, walk to Fisherman’s Wharf ⑭ for delicious fish and chips at Pajo’s ⑮. Get it to go, and walk your takeout to Garry Point Park ⑥ (also home to a seasonal Pajo’s concession stand), a picnicking hotspot with views across the water. Next, stretch your legs with a shoreline stroll to Britannia Shipyards National Historic Site ⑦, an absorbing exploration of BC’s fishing fleet heritage.

Back in the car, explore the rest of Richmond. The landmark Richmond Olympic Oval ⑳ —speed skating venue at the 2010 Winter Olympics—houses cool sports simulators in Canada’s only official Olympic museum ㉑ (1 hour).

If you love shopping, check out any one of the city's many retail destinations (1-2 hours). CF Richmond Centre 8 and Lansdowne Centre 9 are studded with well-known brands; Aberdeen Centre 10, Yaohan Centre 11 and Parker Place 12 are malls with a culturally immersive Asian edge; and McArthurGlen Designer Outlet 13 features 70+ designer stores offering bargain prices.

For dinner (2 hours), choose from the 200+ restaurants on Alexandra Road 16 (aka Food Street) or check out the 100+ food stands at the Friday-to-Sunday, May-to-October Richmond Night Market 17. Still have energy? Try your luck on the gaming floor at River Rock Casino Resort 30.

DAY 2

There's a culinary edge to your second day. Start with a Dumpling Trail exploration—perhaps jian dui sesame balls at Empire Seafood Restaurant 18 or pork-and-shrimp siu mai dumplings at Jade Seafood Restaurant 19 (1 hour).

Next, work off some calories at Richmond's U-pick farms, checking the seasonal availability for strawberries at W&A Farms 20 or blueberries at CanWest Farms 21 (1 hour). Alternatively, sample the premium fruit wines at Canada Berries 22 or the icewines at Lulu Island Winery 23 (1 hour). If you prefer beer, Fuggles & Warlock Craftworks 24 is a top-notch craft brewery.

Travelling with an incurable sweet tooth? Head to one of the city's favourite chocolate makers. Steveston's Sinfully The Best 25 offers an irresistible array of artisan chocolates (30 minutes). But don't eat too much: dinner is calling.

Richmond's 800+ restaurants mean you're spoiled for choice. Start with an aperitif at Fairmont Vancouver Airport's Jetside Bar 26—glancing at the airplanes outside—then dive into a sunset dinner at River Rock Casino Resort's posh Tramonto Restaurant 27 (1-2 hours).

Need more? If you've eaten early enough, drive to Gateway Theatre 31 for an 8pm show (2 hours). It's Richmond's best live theatre, the perfect place for a curtain call end to your citywide adventure.
