DAY 1

Start your morning at Fisherman's Terrace Restaurant (7), dining with the locals and enjoying a delicious dim sum feast (1 hour). It's located inside Aberdeen Centre (3), one of the city's celebrated Asian malls. Save time to explore the shops here and check out the synchronized fountain display (1 hour) before hopping on a Canada Line SkyTrain at adjoining Aberdeen Station. Two stops away is Richmond-Brighouse Station, which is right across the street from CF Richmond Centre (4).

This large, fashion-forward mall is lined with around 200 stores—so there are plenty of places to browse (1 hour).

Walk back to the Canada Line and zip four stops to Templeton Station, where McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Vancouver Airport 5 awaits. Perfect for label-loving bargain hunters, start with a quick lunch at one of the onsite eateries before strolling the brick-paved avenues to find irresistible deals on Coach, Armani, The North Face, and more (2 hours).

Shopped out? Head back to the Canada Line and return to Richmond-Brighouse; you'll be a short stroll from a great dinner at 75 West Coast Grill (3) (1 - 2 hours). Need more? On May to October weekends, you can take the Canada Line to Bridgeport Station and explore the festival-like Richmond Night Market (9). It's an Asian-style evening market studded with cool merchandise stalls and delicious food stands (2 hours).

DAY 2

After yesterday's transit-powered day out, slide behind the wheel and drive to Steveston Village 1. This charming riverfront community is lined with historic attractions and heritage storefronts—especially on its Moncton Street main drag. Park the car and explore the entire village on foot (2 hours), ducking into independent boutiques, artsy shops, and tempting cafes. Looking for unique souvenirs? The large gift shop at the Gulf of Georgia Cannery National Historic Site 2 is a hidden gem. Save time for the shoreline promenade at Fisherman's Wharf — especially if it's lunchtime and you're hungry for great fish and chips (1 hour).

After a little more exploring, hop back in the car and drive east (15 minutes) to Richmond Country Farms 6. This huge, locally owned produce market is lined with fresh fruits and vegetables. Depending on the season, that can include everything from fresh-picked Richmond blueberries to luscious Okanagan peaches. But it's not just about food here; there's also an onsite menagerie of photogenic farm animals, plus an inviting winery tasting room (1 hour).

Take the wine theme even further a short drive away. Select a designated driver so you can happily indulge in a full array of samples at Canada Berries Winery 11, home of awardwinning fruit wines and more (1 hour). Finally, when dinner calls, head back to city centre Richmond for a decadent meal at Origo Club 12, where French and Pacific Northwest culinary approaches combine (2 hours).
